

CASH FOR KIDS 2: OPERATION DETROIT PLANTATION

Investigative Briefing Packet — For Journalists

From: Kevin Mok | (517) 420-8938 | kevin@kevmok.com

Date: September 22, 2026

THE NAME: In 2008, two Pennsylvania judges were convicted of taking $2.6 million in kickbacks to send children to private detention facilities — "Kids for Cash." Detroit has the same structure, applied at city scale, across every institution that touches residents' lives.*

What you're holding: This is the same intelligence packet being sent simultaneously to FBI Detroit, DEA Detroit, IRS Criminal Investigation, DOE Office of Inspector General, USAO Eastern District of Michigan, FinCEN, the Michigan Attorney General, and the US Trustee. You are receiving it because independent journalism is the only mechanism with the speed to inform voters before two network judges face the November 3 ballot.*

STORY ANGLES — WHY THIS MATTERS NOW

■ ANGLE 1: The Convicted Felon Running Two Schools (DOE OIG + State)

Lede: A man with 8 criminal convictions — including lying to a federal judge — is running two Detroit charter schools serving 400+ children, using fabricated academic credentials (a fake J.D. and a Ph.D. built on it). Three percent of his students can read at grade level in math. He takes in $4.3M/year in public per-pupil funding.

Key facts:

- Brian Roderick Banks — convicted 2017 (false statements to federal officer), plus 7 prior state charges
- Claims "Brian Banks, J.D., Ph.D." on school websites, LinkedIn, conference bios
- The J.D. is fabricated: never admitted to any state bar, confirmed via State Bar records
- The Ph.D. (Walden University #12627) lists the fake J.D. on its cover page
- Runs MacDowell Preparatory Academy (~362 students) and Purpose Charter Academy (opened 2025)
- MacDowell: 3% math proficiency, $15,217 per student (above state average)
- $967K operating deficit, $719K balloon payment looming
- His CMO (Purpose Group Michigan LLC) takes $3.9M of $4.9M revenue
- Schools authorized by DPSCD — board voted to approve Purpose Charter Academy in July 2025

Already covered by: Clutch Justice (Rita, Sep 13 2026 — MacDowell financial/academic record)

Source documents: School websites, LARA corporate filings, DPSCD board minutes, NCES data, State Bar roster, Walden ProQuest listing, campaign finance records

■ ANGLE 2: Three Judges Chair the Same Felon's School Boards

Lede: Three sitting Wayne County judges serve on the board of directors of charter schools run by a convicted felon — and none disclosed the relationship to the Judicial Tenure Commission or in conflict-of-interest filings.

The judges:

Judge	Court	Position on Banks' Board	Additional Conflicts
Cylenthia Miller	Wayne 3rd Circuit	Board Chair, MacDowell Prep	Gun at DTW airport (2024), dismissed infant murder case (Prosecutor appealed), ON NOVEMBER 3 BALLOT
Tenisha Yancey	36th District Court	Board member, MacDowell Prep	2024 campaign paid $$ to "Banks Strategy and Consultants" (campaign finance records)
Adam Sabree	Wayne 3rd Circuit	Board involvement via family network	Father = Wayne County Treasurer (most-sued county official in MI), brother = Judge Aliyah Sabree, was previously in-house counsel for Metro Property Group (RICO-level fraud case)

What they knew:

- Banks' own autobiography ("It Had 2 Happen," 2023) describes a 21-year grooming pipeline with sitting judges
- Judges described by name: "mentor" (Langford Morris), "big sister" (Vonda Evans), "same street" (unnamed others)
- The JTC has existing complaints from Kevin Mok on Miller and Yancey (filed Aug 31, supplemented Sep 8)

Election urgency: Miller and Aliyah Sabree face November 3. If they win before the network is exposed, they are protected for 6 more years.

Source documents: School board listings (school websites), JTC complaints (filed), Banks' book (published/purchasable), campaign finance filings (MCFR)

■ ANGLE 3: The Drug Trafficker Running School Finances

Lede: The man handling money for Brian Banks' schools, PAC, and nonprofit is a convicted drug trafficker who was discharged from parole "WITHOUT IMPROVEMENT" in May 2024 — months before being installed as Purpose Foundation director.

Joseph Holland Jr.:

- MDOC #443789 — drug trafficking conviction (felony), paroled, discharged "WITHOUT IMPROVEMENT" May 2024
- Treasurer, Bank on Banks PAC — the committee that funded Banks' House campaigns
- Officer, Purpose Foundation — Banks' new 501(c)(3) registered Dec 2024 at Banks' home
- Successor Trustee, Banks Living Trust — controls Banks' real assets
- 5 personal bankruptcies — serial debtor handling public school money
- Joint ownership with Banks: 21456 Newcastle Rd, Harper Woods (JTWRS since 2007)

- Newcastle property question: Was this jointly-held property disclosed in Holland's bankruptcy schedules? If not, that's federal bankruptcy fraud (18 U.S.C. § 152).

The Right Turn Project (Dark Money):

- 501(c)(3) registered at Holland's property address (Newcastle Rd)
- $0 reported revenue to IRS — but $20,000+ received from Coalition Protecting Auto No-Fault (SuperPAC)
- Banks was on the House Insurance Committee when these payments flowed
- IRS TEOS shows NO current tax-exempt status — dissolved or auto-revoked

Source documents: MDOC OTIS records, MCFR campaign finance filings, LARA corporate filings, property records (Wayne County Register of Deeds), IRS TEOS

■ ANGLE 4: The BMF Connection — Blood, Not Business

Lede: The felon running Detroit charter schools is the biological nephew of Tonesha Welch (BMF Defendant #22, US v. Flenory, 2:05-cr-80955) — and both published autobiographies that effectively confess to their crimes.

The bloodline:

- Brian Banks' biological father = OD Banks (confirmed in both books)
- OD Banks is also the biological father of Tonesha Welch (confirmed in Welch's book, Ch. 4: "Who's My Daddy")
- This makes Banks and Welch half-siblings' children / aunt-nephew by blood
- Banks endorsed Welch's 2026 book ("Black Mafia Queen") while running federally funded schools
- Welch's son, H. Corey Mills, owns "Black Mafia Family LLC" — a registered Michigan entity

What both books admit:

- Banks' book: describes 21-year relationships with judges, knowing bar admission is required but proceeding anyway, and running political operations through a convicted felon's property
- Welch's book: describes the family tree that confirms the blood connection, details of BMF operations, and ongoing involvement in the Banks family network

Source documents: Both books are published and purchasable on Amazon. Welch's federal case is public (PACER: 2:05-cr-80955). LARA shows "Black Mafia Family LLC" registered to H. Corey Mills.

■ ANGLE 5: The Sabree Dynasty — One Family, Three Branches of Government

Lede: Wayne County Treasurer Eric Sabree administers tax foreclosure auctions.

His son Adam Sabree is a sitting 3rd Circuit judge who was previously in-house counsel for a company accused of RICO-level fraud using the foreclosure pipeline his father controls. His daughter Aliyah Sabree is on the November 3 ballot for another 3rd Circuit seat.

Eric Sabree (Treasurer):

- Most-sued county official in Michigan — currently defendant in Bowles v. Sabree class action (20-cv-12838)
- Federal litigation challenges illegal retention of surplus equity from tax foreclosures
- Supreme Court ruled (Tyler v. Hennepin, 2023) that keeping surplus is unconstitutional
- His family members have purchased properties at auctions he administers

Adam Sabree (Judge, 3rd Circuit):

- Previously in-house counsel for Metro Property Group LLC

- Metro Property Group: RICO-level fraud case (Llewellyn-Jones v. Metro Property Group, 2:13-cv-11977) — defrauded foreign investors by selling Detroit foreclosed homes at 80x markup
- Now sits as a judge in the same court system

Aliyah Sabree (Judge candidate):

- Running for Family Division — would hear custody cases involving Detroit children
- Third Sabree in institutional power
- On November 3 ballot

Source documents: Federal court dockets (PACER), Wayne County property records, Wayne County Treasurer office records, election filings

■ ANGLE 6: 50,000-Case Backlog as a Weapon

Lede: Wayne County's 50,000+ case backlog means functionally nobody gets a trial.

Residents plead out or accept detrimental deals because the alternative is waiting indefinitely in a system where the judges are the network.

Court capture mechanism:

- 36th District Court alone = most congested in Michigan
- Case delay means custody litigants lose access to their children for months/years pending adjudication
- Self-represented litigants (majority in Family Division) have no mechanism to identify judicial conflicts
- When judges with undisclosed ties to network members hear cases involving network interests, the conflict is invisible

The Kevin Mok case as microcosm:

- Custody case involving a child enrolled at Banks' PCA school
 - Judge Yancey had undisclosed financial ties to Banks (campaign payments)
 - Judge Miller chairs the board of Banks' school
 - Kevin's PPO against Banks was assigned to a court where Banks has institutional relationships
 - Kevin's mail carrier (Leon Smith, USPS) intercepted certified legal documents and physically assaulted family members — 3 USPS OIG cases filed

■ ANGLE 7: The Dark Money Pipeline

Lede: At least $98,000 from seven political committees flowed through a single vendor — Inner Link Graphics — connecting state legislators, Banks, Holland, and political operatives through the same payment pipeline.

Key flows:

- Inner Link Graphics: $98K from 7 committees (Banks, Morris, Gielegghem, others)
 - Right Turn Project: Dark money 501(c)(3), $0 reported, $20K+ received
 - OFA Michigan: Holland as officer, mailers to voters, possible auto-revocation
 - Coalition Protecting Auto No-Fault: $20K to Right Turn Project while Banks sat on Insurance Committee
 - Yancey → "Banks Strategy and Consultants": Campaign payment from sitting judge to the man whose school board she sits on

WHAT I'M ASKING OF JOURNALISTS

1. Verify independently. Every claim above has a public source. Pull the LARA records, the campaign finance filings, the school data, the court dockets. This is verifiable on its own terms.

2. Publish before November 3. Two network judges (Miller, Aliyah Sabree) face the ballot. Wayne County voters deserve to know before they vote. The federal agencies will move at their pace. Journalism moves faster.

3. Ask the questions they won't answer:

- Mr. Banks, when were you admitted to the bar?
- Judge Miller, did you disclose your MacDowell board position to the JTC?
- Treasurer Sabree, how many properties have your family members purchased at your auctions?
- Mr. Holland, did you disclose the Newcastle Road property in your bankruptcy schedules?

4. Cover the system, not just the scandal. This is not one corrupt school principal. This is institutional capture across every system Detroit residents depend on. The Kids for Cash comparison is earned — it's the same mechanics at city scale.

5. Protect the source. Kevin Mok is a pro se custody litigant. The retaliatory capacity of this network includes judges, a county treasurer, a state legislator's network, and a USPS mail carrier who has already forged documents and physically assaulted family. Every communication channel Kevin uses is compromised. Please use Signal.
